

As part of the Department of State's ongoing commitment to optimize services, our online voter and election-related applications will be unavailable from December 18 to 23. This includes online voter registration, campaign-finance services, and other election-related searches. We apologize for any inconvenience as we work to better serve you.