PENNSYLVANIA BUSINESS CODE TITLE 15 / SEC. 1508 (A) Every business corporation shall keep complete and accurate books and records of account, minutes of the proceedings of the incorporators, shareholders and directors and a share register giving the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each. The share register shall be kept at any of the following locations: (1) The registered office of the corporation in this Commonwealth; (2) The principal place of business of the corporation wherever situated; (3) Any actual business office of the corporation; or (4) The office of the registrar or transfer agent of the corporation.

Maintaining records is vital to the existence of all corporations in particular the recording of shareholder and director meetings. If ever sued and requested by the courts, through a subpoena, or IRS via tax audit, failure to comply with certain requirements could cause your corporation to lose its limited liability status "pierced veil." If so, personal liability or exposure could possibly be put on directors and shareholders for failing to document formalities. Limited Liability Companies and Non-Profit Organizations, although treated slightly different than that of other entity types, books and records of Annual Meeting Minutes are highly suggestive for proper corporate maintenance. Companies that do not satisfy certain state requirements may forfeit the limited liability protection provided to owners, and could face administrative dissolution or revocation of the entity status by the state should the integrity of the corporation become questionable. Most states require all corporate entities to maintain books and records of account along with Annual Meeting Minutes. Not satisfying the minimum annual filing requirements in a timely manner causes your company to be in "bad standing" in the state. We assist corporations to avoid potential non-compliance with the above provision of maintaining Annual Meeting Minutes. Please complete legibly, sign, and date the Annual Disclosure Statement form below by providing the following candidate names for the positions listed then submit along with the proper Document Fee of $125 to ensure the processing and mailing back of your corporate documents in a timely manner. Mail this statement form along with payment to: Pennsylvania Corporate Compliance Business Services Division 4075 Linglestown Road #120 Harrisburg, PA 17112.
