COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

Voting is a pillar of America's democracy. By participating in elections, you decide who will represent you in Pennsylvania government. That's why we're prioritizing making it more convenient for Pennsylvanians to participate in the voting process. Last year, we launched register.votespa.com to allow Pennsylvanians to register to vote or change their registration online. We're focused on providing more reforms like this in the future.

During the 2016 election cycle, voters will elect a new president. In the commonwealth, we will cast ballots for members of the General Assembly and the three statewide row offices: attorney general, auditor general and treasurer. Together, our decisions will directly affect the course of our commonwealth and nation.

To enhance your understanding of the political process, it is my pleasure to provide the 2016 Election Calendar. Within its pages you will find an extensive list of important dates and deadlines for Pennsylvania's electoral system.

I hope you find this guide useful as we work together to maximize participation in our elections.

Sincerely,

Governor Tom Wolf

COMMONWEALTH OF
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

As citizens of the United States, there is no civic action we can take that is more powerful than going to the polls on Election Day and casting our ballot. In 2016, voters will elect a new President and also will vote for a variety of federal and state offices including U.S. Senator.

As the state's Chief Election Official, I am pleased to present the 2016 Pennsylvania Election Calendar. This comprehensive listing of important dates includes valuable information for voters, candidates, campaign workers and election officials.

With this guide, candidates and their campaign staffs will be able to easily keep track of important dates related to ballot access and campaign finance requirements. Detailed information on running for office can be found at the Department of State's website, www.dos.pa.gov.

For voters, the Election Calendar contains deadlines for registration as well as for requesting and submitting absentee ballots. Visit www.votesPA.com to locate your polling place, download forms, verify registration status and find contact information for county election offices. Online voter registration makes the process more convenient, secure and accessible than ever. Go to register.votespa.com to register for the first time or update your information.

If you have election-related questions, I encourage you to contact the Bureau of Commissions, Elections and Legislation at 1-800-VOTESPA (1-800-868-3772).

I urge every eligible citizen of the commonwealth to register to vote. Then, exercise your most fundamental right as a citizen and cast your ballot in 2016.

Sincerely,

Pedro A. Cortés
