

1. All promoters must have a valid promoter's license issued from the Commission - the fee is $100 per year and the license will expire on December 31st of each year. All boxing promoters are required to complete a criminal record check (mail in form or online access) before a license can be issued.
2. A surety bond of not less than $10,000 must be on file with the Commission before the event. Cash or certified check may also be used instead of the bond.
3. All promoters shall apply in writing to the Commission specifying the time, date and location of their event. All bouts must be approved by the Executive Director and should be given at least ten (10) days before the event.
4. All professional boxers must be licensed and take a pre-fight physical exam by a Commission approved doctor. (Other exams may also be required-particularly those boxers over the age of 36.) Boxers must provide an annual physical (on Commission form) as well as a NEGATIVE HIV, Hepatitis B-Surface Antigen and Hepatitis C exam at time of licensing - Results cannot be more than six (6) months old. All Boxers must also have a current Federal I.D. Card.
5. All Boxers must have a signed Bout Agreement on a Commission form before they can weigh-in.
6. All fees pertaining to the boxer (including the licensing of his seconds/trainers/managers) shall be paid by the promoter by CHECK, made payable to the Commonwealth of PA. The promoter can then deduct these fees from the boxer's purse. All BOXERS must be paid in CASH immediately after the event - unless otherwise approved by the Commission.
7. Insurance is required for all boxers and referees. A CHECK, paying for this insurance, must be given to the Commission before the end of the event.
8. A broadcast/TV report must be completed by the promoter when the event is being televised in any manner. The fee is based on a sliding scale and payment should be made by CHECK, payable to the Commonwealth of PA.
9. The promoter must pay all officials, immediately after the event. All money shall be given to the Commission who shall then disburse it to the officials.
