

Osteopathic Medicine Board – Physician & Surgeon – Military Occupational Crosswalk

Licensed Occupations: Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon

Air Force

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

- Emergency Services Physician (44EX; 44E4; 44E4A; 44E3; 44E3A; 44E1; 44E1A) [Commissioned Officer] Page 3
- Preventative Medicine Physician (44BX; 44B4; 44B3; 44B1) [Commissioned Officer] Page 4
- Family Physician (44FX; 44FXC; 44FXB; 44FXA; 44F4C; 44F4B; 44F4A; 44F3; 44F3C; 44F3B; 44F3A; 44F1; 44F1C; 44F1B; 44F1A; 44EX; 44E4; 44E4A; 44E3; 44E3A; 44E1; 44E1A) [Commissioned Officer] Page 5
- General Practice Physician (44GX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 6
- Nuclear Medicine Physician (44HX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 7
- Pediatrician (44K1; 44K1A; 44K1B; 44K1C; 44K1D; 44K1E; 44K1F; 44K1G; 44K1H; 44K1J; 44K1K; 44K1M; 44K1N; 44K1P) [Commissioned Officer] Page 8
- Internist (44M1; 44M1L; 44M1K; 44M1J; 44M1H; 44M1G; 44M1F; 44M1E; 44M3D; 44M3C; 44M3B; 44M3A) [Commissioned Officer] Page 9
- Neurologist (44NX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 10
- Critical Care Medicine Officer (44YX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 11
- Otorhinolaryngologist (45N3) [Commissioned Officer] Page 12
- Orthopedic Surgeon (45B3; 45B3H; 45B3G; 45B3F; 45B3E; 45B3D; 45B3B; 45B3A) [Commissioned Officer] Page 13
- General Surgeon (45S1; 45S3; 45S4; 45SX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 14
- Flight Surgeon (48G1) [Commissioned Officer] Page 15
- Psychiatrist (44P1A; 44P1B; 44P1; 44P3A; 44P3B; 44P3; 44P4A; 44P4B; 44P4; 44PX) [Commissioned Officer] Page 16
- Clinical Geneticist (44J1; 44J3; 44J4; 44JX) [Officer] Page 17

Army

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

- Rheumatologist (61D) [Officer] Page 18
- Internal Medicine Physician (61F) [Officer] Page 19
- Nephrologist (61A) [Officer] Page 20
- Psychiatrist (61P) [Officer] Page 21
- Endocrinologist (61C) [Officer] Page 22
- Otolaryngologist (60T) [Officer] Page 23
- Medical Oncologist/Hematologist (61B) [Officer] Page 24
- Emergency Physician (62A) [Officer] Page 25
- Infectious Disease Officer (61G) [Officer] Page 26
- Flight Surgeon (61N) [Officer] Page 27
- Psychiatrist (60W) [Officer] Page 28
- Child Psychiatrist (60U) [Officer] Page 29
- Occupational Medicine Officer (60D) [Officer] Page 30

Coast Guard

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

- Physician (91,92,93) [Officer] Page 31

Marines

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

No related occupations

Navy

Related Occupations (Military Occupation Code):

- Flight Surgeon (110) [Commissioned Officer] Page 32
- Undersea Medical Officer (107) [Commissioned Officer] Page 33
- Nuclear Medicine Specialist (140) [Commissioned Officer] Page 34
- Family Practitioner (108) [Commissioned Officer] Page 35
- Otolaryngologist (243) [Commissioned Officer] Page 36
- Emergency Medical Physician (103) [Commissioned Officer] Page 37
- General Surgeon (214) [Commissioned Officer] Page 38
- Colon Rectal Surgeon (259) [Commissioned Officer] Page 39
- Neurosurgeon (224) [Commissioned Officer] Page 40
- Orthopedic Surgeon (244) [Commissioned Officer] Page 41
- Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgeon (264) [Commissioned Officer] Page 42

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force

Emergency Services Physician (44EX; 44E4; 44E4A; 44E3; 44E3A; 44E1; 44E1A)
[Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focused on immediate decision-making and treatment, Emergency Services Physicians take the actions necessary to care for and stabilize their patients. • The care provided by these quick-thinking specialists often prevents death or further disability until they can be referred to the appropriate medical departments.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine • One year of graduate medical education in a clinical specialty at a hospital
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Additional knowledge in aspects of injury and illness unique to the Air Force and its military mission. • Completion of an Emergency Services Physician course. • Acceptance by the American Board of Emergency Medicine in a residency program in emergency medicine. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of practical experience and continuing education activities. • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certified Emergency Manager (CEM) • Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) • Emergency Medical Technician - Advanced

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in emergency medicine approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Preventative Medicine Physician (44BX; 44B4; 44B3; 44B1)
[Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focusing on the health of individuals, communities and specific populations, Preventive Medicine specialists help groups reduce their risk of disease, disability, and death. • Utilizing knowledge and skills from medical, social, cultural, and behavioral sciences, they provide care and determine health policies that best benefit their patients and community health.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of residency or fellowship in general preventive medicine. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine • Nuclear Medicine Technologist (NMT)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in general preventive medicine approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Family Physician¹

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Responsible for continuing and comprehensive care, Family Physicians treat patients of all ages and sexes. • From health maintenance and preventive services to behavioral and social needs, these specialists provide services that broadly encompass the treatment needs of their patients.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed a residency in family practice or board certification by either the American Board of Family Practice or the Advisory Board of Osteopathic Specialties. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in family practice approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

¹ (44FX; 44FXC; 44FXB; 44FXA; 44F4C; 44F4B; 44F4A; 44F3; 44F3C; 44F3B; 44F3A; 44F1; 44F1C; 44F1B; 44F1A; 44EX; 44E4; 44E4A; 44E3; 44E3A; 44E1; 44E1A) [Commissioned Officer]

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
General Practice Physician (44GX) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diagnose, treat, and help prevent diseases and injuries of military personnel and their families. • Determine presence and extent of illness or injury by reviewing medical histories, X-rays, laboratory reports, and examination reports. • Provide emergency care, including responses to battlefield injuries. • Examine patients and obtain medical histories
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed a residency in family practice or board certification by either the American Board of Family Practice or the Advisory Board of Osteopathic Specialties. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in family practice approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Nuclear Medicine Physician (44HX) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Utilizing tracers and radionuclides, Nuclear Medicine Physicians evaluate various conditions within the body to determine the proper course of care. • Their ability to detect abnormalities sooner than other tests and procedures allows for earlier treatment and a better prognosis for their patients.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency in nuclear medicine. • Completion of an additional residency in diagnostic radiology, internal medicine, pathology, or other specialties required on a case-by-case basis. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nuclear Medicine Technologist (NMT) • Nuclear Medicine Technology (N) • Nuclear Cardiology Technologist (NCT)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in nuclear medicine as well as an additional residency in diagnostic radiology, internal medicine, pathology, or another specialty approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Pediatrician²

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing care for infants, children and adolescents, Pediatricians manage the physical, mental, and emotional well-being of their patients. Whether they're conducting a routine checkup or treating illness or injury, these specialists play a critical role in keeping their patients happy and healthy through every stage of development.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in pediatrics. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board Certification as a Specialist in Pediatric Nutrition (CSP)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program in pediatrics approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

² (44K1; 44K1A; 44K1B; 44K1C; 44K1D; 44K1E; 44K1F; 44K1G; 44K1H; 44K1J; 44K1K; 44K1M; 44K1N; 44K1P) [Commissioned Officer]

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force

Internist (44M1; 44M1L; 44M1K; 44M1J; 44M1H; 44M1G; 44M1F; 44M1E; 44M3D; 44M3C; 44M3B; 44M3A) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prepare and review patient case histories and clinical records. • Perform and direct diagnostic procedures, including x-ray examinations and clinical laboratory tests. • Interpret test results and analyze examination findings. • Prescribe treatments such as drugs, physical therapy, and dietary or activity restrictions. • Assess and follow patients suffering from diseases and disorders of internal organs
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in internal medicine. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in internal medicine approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Neurologist (44NX) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Neurologists diagnose and treat patients suffering from organic diseases or disorders of the central or peripheral nervous system. • They examine patients and conduct electroencephalographic (EEG) and other diagnostic tests to determine extent of disease and develop a treatment plan.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in neurology. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine • Neurologic Physical Therapy Specialist Certification

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in neurology approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Critical Care Medicine Officer (44YX) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physicians and surgeons who specialize in hospital or critical care medicine provide medical care to patients with life-threatening conditions. Patients receive this type of care in a critical care unit of a hospital, and often require sophisticated organ support and monitoring. • Hospitalists/critical care physicians examine, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries by surgical and non-surgical means. They oversee the staff of critical care units in the provision of round-the-clock care to acutely ill patients.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board eligibility in one of the following basic specialties: surgery, anesthesiology, pediatrics, or internal medicine. • Completion of a fellowship in critical care medicine or equivalent. • All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine • Adult Critical Care Specialty Examination (ACCS) • Critical Care Paramedic Certification (CCP-C)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in critical care management approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Otorhinolaryngologist (45N3) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Otorhinolaryngologists examine, diagnose, and treat injuries and disorders of the ear, nose, and throat regions. • These specialists perform the medical and surgical procedures necessary to help Airmen and their families recover from the varying ailments that affect these vital areas.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in otorhinolaryngology. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • For specialty shredouts, completion of a fellowship specific to the appropriate shredout course. • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in otorhinolaryngology approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force

Orthopedic Surgeon (45B3; 45B3H; 45B3G; 45B3F; 45B3E; 45B3D; 45B3B; 45B3A) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Responsible for the examination, diagnosis and treatment of diseases and injuries of the musculoskeletal system, Orthopedic Surgeons care for everything that allows one to move, work and be active. • Utilizing both conservative and surgical means, these specialists treat everything from sports injuries to degenerative conditions, enabling their patients to resume daily activities as quickly as possible.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in orthopedic surgery. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine • Orthopedic Physical Therapy Specialist Certification • Orthopedic Technologist - Certified (OTC)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in orthopedic surgery approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
General Surgeon (45S1; 45S3; 45S4; 45SX) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Surgeons examine, diagnose, and treat disease and injuries by applying non-invasive, minimally invasive, and invasive surgical methods. • They determine and direct procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, including medication, diet restrictions, and wound care. • They coordinate care with anesthesiologists before, during, and after surgical procedures. • Additionally, surgeons in the Military may perform operations and other emergency procedures in combat situations.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in surgery. • Completion of additional residency or fellowship related to subspecialty. • All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in surgery approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Flight Surgeon (48G1) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aerospace Medicine Specialists/Flight Surgeons are primary care physicians for pilots and crewmembers traveling in air or space. • These physicians discover, prevent, and manage the various physiological responses that result from encountering exceptional environments.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • M.D. or D.O. degree and completed an ACGME- or AOA-accredited program of postgraduate specialty training
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a primary course in aerospace medicine. • Must possess an aeronautical rating of Flight Surgeon, Senior Flight Surgeon or Chief Flight Surgeon. • Completion of a residency at a fully accredited residency program. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Minimum 12 months of experience as a flight surgeon (Aerospace Medicine Specialist only). • Board eligible in Aerospace Medicine (Aerospace Medicine Specialist only). • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Psychiatrist (44P1A; 44P1B; 44P1; 44P3A; 44P3B; 44P3; 44P4A; 44P4B; 44P4; 44PX)
[Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, evaluate, diagnose, and treat psychiatric disorders • Prescribe and evaluate the effectiveness of a wide range of therapeutic measures • Manage and direct psychiatric services and clinics • Coordinate psychiatric services with other medical activities
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of residency or fellowship in psychiatry for subspecialties • Completion of an additional residency or fellowship in psychiatry related to the shredout • All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of five-week Commissioned Officer training course • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental Health Technician Certification (MHTC)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in psychiatry approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Air Force
Clinical Geneticist (44J1; 44J3; 44J4; 44JX) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluate, treat, and follow patients with genetic disorders • Provide counseling to individuals and families with heritable diseases • Manage medical genetic services, including plans, procedures, and personnel • Instruct interns and residents in methods and procedures for diagnosis and management of genetic disorders
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree and completed an ACGME- or AOA-accredited program of postgraduate specialty training
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship in medical genetics. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Board eligibility in one of the following basic specialties: surgery, anesthesiology, pediatrics, or internal medicine • Completion of 5.5-week Commissioned Officer training course • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in medical genetics approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Air Force, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well

Army
Rheumatologist (61D) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or recommend course of treatment for adult diseases, with emphasis on disorders of the connective tissue. • Examine, diagnose, and treat arthritic, systemic rheumatic, and musculoskeletal diseases.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Internal Medicine Physician (61F) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or recommend courses of management for adults with medical illness. • Conduct and supervise direct patient care, and plan and execute disease prevention and health promotion programs. • Exercise command of medical units as provided by law and regulation. • Perform special staff functions in health support for commanders at all levels. • Conduct medical research on diseases of military importance, and conduct, supervise and participate in graduate medical education and training of other medical personnel needed to sustain a robust and readily available medical system.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Nephrologist (61A) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or recommend course of therapy for adult diseases, with particular emphasis on disorders of the kidney and excretory system. • Examine, diagnose, and treat adults with all forms of kidney disease hypertension and acute/chronic kidney failure. • Serves as the primary physician for patients receiving any form of dialysis or who have received a kidney transplant.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Physiatrist (61P) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plans, establishes, and directs physical medicine and rehabilitation program at medical installations.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Endocrinologist (61C) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or recommend courses of treatment for adult diseases, with particular emphasis on disorders of the endocrine system and metabolism.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Otolaryngologist (60T) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides medical care for problems related to the ear, nose, throat, head, and neck. • Exercise command of medical units as provided by law and regulation. • Perform staff functions in health support for commanders at all levels. • Medical research on diseases of military importance. • Participate in graduate medical education and train other personnel. • Serve unique duty positions for the otolaryngology Service and the medical school faculty
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Medical Oncologist/Hematologist (61B) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat for adult diseases, with particular emphasis on neoplastic and malignant disorders.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Emergency Physician (62A) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat the initial phase of disease or injury. • Exercise command of medical units as provided by law and regulation. • Perform staff functions in health support for commanders at all levels. • Medical research on diseases of military importance. • Participate in Graduate Medical Education and train other personnel. • Serve unique duty positions for the department of emergency medicine and the medical school faculty
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship • Completion of a training program in emergency medicine • All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Infectious Disease Officer (61G) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generally responsible for diagnoses, laboratory confirmation, treatment, control, and/or description of natural history and transmission kinetics of infectious diseases including biological warfare threats. • Consults on public health policy
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Flight Surgeon (61N) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide aviation and general medical services for Army aviation personnel. • Serve as a career specialist in aviation/aerospace medicine in areas of aircrew standards, aero medical education, aero medical research, and aero medical administration and consultation. • Provide aviation and general medical services for Army aviation and other operational units.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Requires time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision. • Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to battlefield conditions is critical to medical and mission success. • Hold unrestricted state medical license (not training)
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed residency program in approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Psychiatrist (60W) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for personnel suffering from emotional or mental illness, intellectual disabilities, or situational maladjustment • Conduct and supervise direct patient care, and plan and execute disease prevention and health promotion programs • Perform special staff functions in health support for commanders at all levels • Conduct medical research on diseases of military importance, and conduct, supervise and participate in graduate medical education and training of other medical personnel
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy degree from an accredited U.S. school of medicine or osteopathy; foreign graduates may apply with permanent certificate from the Educational Council of Foreign Medical Graduates • Psychiatrists have access to sophisticated technology, the opportunity to consult with experts in both the military and private sector, plus exceptional professional growth opportunities, including continuing education courses, seminars, and conferences. • The Army Medical Corps offers first-year graduate medical education, residency, and fellowship programs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Medical Corps officers will also attend certain military short courses designed to develop and enhance the tactical, technical, and operational skills unique to the military environment
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Eligibility for board certification • Completion of at least one year of an approved graduate medical education internship • Completion of a training program in psychiatry or residency in the U.S. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision • Ability to operate under stress and apply critical thinking skills • Possess expert knowledge in their area of concentration, patient management, and general support and coordination principles. • Psychiatrists gain this knowledge through continuing medical education and experience sustained by mentoring, additional institutional training, continuous self-development, and progressive levels of assignments within their specialty.
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board Certified Specialist in Behavioral and Cognitive Psychology - American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed at least one year of a graduate medical education internship approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Child Psychiatrist (60U) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide diagnostic evaluations and treatment services to children and adolescents suffering from an emotional or mental disorder or mental retardation • Provides or supervises associated treatment or guidance to parents and families • May assume all duties of an adult psychiatrist (60W)
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy degree from an accredited U.S. school of medicine or osteopathy; foreign graduates may apply with permanent certificate from the Educational Council of Foreign Medical Graduates • In the U.S. Army, the case diversity psychiatrists experience in caring for Soldiers and their families is extremely vast. • Psychiatrists have access to sophisticated technology, the opportunity to consult with experts in both the military and private sector, plus exceptional professional growth opportunities, including continuing education courses, seminars, and conferences. • The Army Medical Corps offers first-year graduate medical education, residency, and fellowship programs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Medical Corps officers will also attend certain military short courses designed to develop and enhance the tactical, technical, and operational skills unique to the military environment
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Eligibility for board certification • Completion of at least one year of an approved graduate medical education internship • Completion of a training program in child psychiatry. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Job Requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Time-sensitive problem analysis with an accurate, sound, and immediate decision ○ Ability to operate under stress, apply critical thinking skills, make decisions, and translate these skills to combat. • Expert knowledge in their area of concentration, patient management, and general support and coordination principles. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Psychiatrists gain this knowledge through mentoring, training, continuous self-development, and progressive levels of assignments within their specialty.
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Board Certified Specialist in Behavioral and Cognitive Psychology - American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP) • Board Certified Specialist in Group Psychology – ABPP • Board Certified Specialist in Psychoanalysis in Psychology - ABPP

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed at least one year of a graduate medical education internship approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Army
Occupational Medicine Officer (60D) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determine the conditions that influence the health of military and DA civilians, and supervises occupational health programs • Recommend the measures that are to be taken for improvements in physical fitness, disease prevention and injury • Exercise command of medical units as provided by law and regulation • Perform staff functions in health support for commanders at all levels • Medical research on diseases of military importance • Participate in graduate medical education and train other personnel • Serve unique duty positions as a chief, consultant and/or faculty member in occupational health service
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Job training for an Army medical officer includes first-year graduate medical education, residency and fellowship programs. • Students benefit through unique training experiences and get to attend certain military short courses designed to develop tactical, technical and operational skills unique to the military environment
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine/Osteopathy degree from an accredited U.S. school (foreign graduates may apply if they have a permanent certificate from the Educational Commission of Foreign Medical Graduates) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia or Puerto Rico • Eligibility for board certification • Completion of at least one year of an approved graduate medical education internship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Completion of a training program in occupational medicine. • Ability to make accurate, immediate decisions • Ability to perform under stress • Apply critical technical and thinking skills • Tremendous concentration
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Occupational Therapist Registered (OTR)

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed at least one year of a graduate medical education internship approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Army, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Coast Guard
Physician (91,92,93) [Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physicians examine patients; take medical histories; prescribe medications; and order, perform, and interpret diagnostic tests. • They often counsel patients on diet, hygiene, and preventive healthcare.
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Coast Guard, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Flight Surgeon (110) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop policies and procedures, and prepare directives governing medicine, physical exams and standards, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine; • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for battlefield disease and injury; • Diagnose and treat diseases that are specific to type of duty, such as decompression sickness or flight related illnesses; • Provide resuscitative and definitive care for injured and wounded soldiers; • Evaluate and develop recommendations concerning medical and occupational health hazards peculiar to diving, submarine, and aerospace operations; • Conduct physical and psychological examinations; • Participate in field exercises and escapes, observing and treating personnel for physical and psychological effects; • Supervise industrial hygiene and radiological health procedures; • Prescribe medical treatment and implement/monitor preventive medicine programs; • Direct evaluations of living and working environments within the service community to detect and control health hazards, and prevent disease and injury; • Serve as the principal liaison with federal, state, and local agencies in matters related to medicine, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine;
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well

Navy
Undersea Medical Officer (107) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop policies and procedures, and prepare directives governing medicine, physical exams and standards, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine; • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for battlefield disease and injury; • Diagnose and treat diseases that are specific to type of duty, such as decompression sickness or flight related illnesses; • Provide resuscitative and definitive care for injured and wounded soldiers; • Evaluate and develop recommendations concerning medical and occupational health hazards peculiar to diving, submarine, and aerospace operations; • Conduct physical and psychological examinations; • Participate in field exercises and escapes, observing and treating personnel for physical and psychological effects; • Supervise industrial hygiene and radiological health procedures; • Prescribe medical treatment and implement/monitor preventive medicine programs; • Direct evaluations of living and working environments within the service community to detect and control health hazards, and prevent disease and injury; • Serve as the principal liaison with federal, state, and local agencies in matters related to medicine, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine;
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Nuclear Medicine Specialist (140) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use radionuclides to diagnose and administer treatment of various diseases and disorders; • Examine patients, conduct appropriate tests, and interpret findings; • Instruct technicians in protection against radiation hazards; • Review requests for nuclear imaging and therapeutic procedures, and determine applicability of requested procedures; • Interview patients and examine records and supplementary data; • Instruct and direct nuclear medicine technologists regarding desired dosages, techniques, positions, and projections; • Apply appropriate data processing techniques; Interpret images and data, and confer with medical and dental officers regarding diagnoses of cases; • Prepare comprehensive interpretive reports of findings; • Perform diagnostic studies of blood and urine, including radioimmunoassay, volume and dilution studies, and hematological studies; • Schedule examinations, assign personnel, and determine capability of available resources; • Ensure quality control of radionuclide preparation, administration, and disposition, and ensure that all activities comply with the standards of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission; • Advise on kind and quantity of nuclear medicine supplies and equipment; • Participate in delivery of graduate medical education in nuclear medicine, diagnostic radiology, and other specialties
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Family Practitioner (108) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide comprehensive care of patients with problems in areas such as general medicine, gynecology, obstetrics, psychiatry, preventive medicine, pediatrics, and orthopedics in both in-patient and out-patient environments; • Prepare and review medical histories and obtain data through interviews; • Request laboratory tests and x-rays, evaluate results, and perform appropriate treatment; • Prescribe drugs, dietary measures, and physical therapy for adults and children; Perform basic surgical procedures; • Augment the capabilities of the surgical specialties through triage, stabilization, and surgical assistance, as well as pre- and post-operative care; • Perform routine medical examinations and duties, and maintain medical welfare of personnel within command; • Schedule activities for family clinics, and assign medical officers, nurses, and technicians; • Determine need for, and advise on, kind and quantity of medical supplies and equipment; • Supervise technical personnel in conducting routine laboratory procedures and tests; • Conduct routine medical inspections of unit; • Train enlisted personnel in first aid and sanitation, and establish first aid stations for emergency treatment; • Maintain a program of comprehensive health for the family unit, to include preventive medicine, behavioral sciences, and community health; • Determine need for additional consultation and assist in medical care and treatment provided at the direction of other specialists
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Otolaryngologist (243) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for personnel suffering from diseases, injuries, or disorders of the ear, nose, and throat; • Perform surgical procedures to alleviate or correct diseases, injuries, or disorders of the ear, nose, throat, head, neck, and related structures; • Diagnose and treat traumatic injury and neoplastic disease of the head and neck to include advanced surgical removal, repair, and reconstruction; • Provide advanced education, diagnosis, and treatment in the reconstructive and cosmetic repair of traumatic, neoplastic, congenital, and acquired deformities of the head and neck; • Prepare and review case histories and obtain data through interviews; Examine patients and determine x-ray examinations and clinical laboratory tests required; • Interpret test results and evaluate examination findings; • Determine procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, such as administering sedatives, prescribing diets, and preparing operative area of patients; • Treat patients suffering from surgical shock, postoperative hemorrhages, and other complications; • Manage otorhinolaryngological services; formulate plans and procedures for otorhinolaryngological services; • Schedule operations and assign surgeons, nurses, and medical technicians; • Advise on types and quantity of otorhinolaryngological supplies and equipment; Instruct interns and residents in techniques of head and neck surgery
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Emergency Medical Physician (103) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for the initial and acute phase of disease and injuries; • Administer programs, direct, and supervise personnel, and maintain continual surveillance of specialized equipment in the medical/surgical emergency room; • Organize and direct programs for on-the-job training of personnel and supervise their performance; • Maintain liaison with other departments within the medical facility to assure available consultation and to arrange for appropriate transfer of patients with minimum time delay and maximum continued quality of medical care; • Direct emergency and related outpatient services; • Direct disaster planning, training, and management in the prehospital and hospital access areas; • Provide diagnosis and care based on medical history, physical examination, and diagnostic tests; • Provide supportive care to patients with serious medical and surgical conditions, until the care of those patients can be assumed by the appropriate specialist for that condition; • Provide interim care for conditions that, while not life-threatening, cause discomfort or risk of worsening, to the extent that such care cannot be reasonably delayed until the next available access into a more appropriate source for care; • Work with disaster planning and hospital command personnel to design effective prehospital and initial hospital care and triage activities for disaster and mass casualty situations; • Function as the prehospital care provider and supervisor in disaster and mass casualty situations, and provide triage expertise and immediate care skills at the hospital access level
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
General Surgeon (214) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop policies and procedures, and prepare directives governing medicine, physical exams and standards, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine; • Examine, diagnose, and treat or prescribe course of treatment for battlefield disease and injury; • Diagnose and treat diseases that are specific to type of duty, such as decompression sickness or flight related illnesses; • Provide resuscitative and definitive care for injured and wounded soldiers; • Evaluate and develop recommendations concerning medical and occupational health hazards peculiar to diving, submarine, and aerospace operations; • Conduct physical and psychological examinations; • Participate in field exercises and escapes, observing and treating personnel for physical and psychological effects; • Supervise industrial hygiene and radiological health procedures; • Prescribe medical treatment and implement/monitor preventive medicine programs; • Direct evaluations of living and working environments within the service community to detect and control health hazards, and prevent disease and injury; • Serve as the principal liaison with federal, state, and local agencies in matters related to medicine, preventive medicine, and occupational medicine; • Make determinations on waivers of medical standards; • Develop and implement research projects to control communicable and preventable diseases;
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Colon Rectal Surgeon (259) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine patients and determine additional examinations and clinical laboratory tests that may be required; • Interpret test results and evaluate examination findings; • Prepare and review patient case histories; • Prescribe and administer conservative measures of treatment, such as antibiotics, drugs, and compresses; • Determine procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, such as administering sedatives, prescribing diets, and preparing operative area of patient; • Coordinate surgical operation with anesthesiologist and other medical services; • Perform, oversee, or assist in performing procedures in areas such as cardiac, pulmonary, plastic, brain, and orthopedic surgery; • Treat patients suffering from surgical shock, postoperative hemorrhages, and other complications; • Schedule operations, assign personnel such as nurses and medical technicians, and provide direction on care of patients and operating room protocol; • Advise on kind and quantity of supplies and equipment; Instruct interns and residents on surgical procedures and techniques; • Treat diseases of, and injuries to, certain organs or systems using surgical procedures not requiring specialty skills; • Refer patients to other or additional specialists when the nature of the disease or injury presents such a necessity
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well

Navy
Neurosurgeon (224) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine patients and determine additional examinations and clinical laboratory tests that may be required; • Interpret test results and evaluate examination findings; • Prepare and review patient case histories; • Prescribe and administer conservative measures of treatment, such as antibiotics, drugs, and compresses; • Determine procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, such as administering sedatives, prescribing diets, and preparing operative area of patient; • Coordinate surgical operation with anesthesiologist and other medical services; • Perform, oversee, or assist in performing procedures in areas such as cardiac, pulmonary, plastic, brain, and orthopedic surgery; • Treat patients suffering from surgical shock, postoperative hemorrhages, and other complications; • Schedule operations, assign personnel such as nurses and medical technicians, and provide direction on care of patients and operating room protocol; • Advise on kind and quantity of supplies and equipment; Instruct interns and residents on surgical procedures and techniques; • Treat diseases of, and injuries to, certain organs or systems using surgical procedures not requiring specialty skills; • Refer patients to other or additional specialists when the nature of the disease or injury presents such a necessity
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE.
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Orthopedic Surgeon (244) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine patients and determine additional examinations and clinical laboratory tests that may be required; • Interpret test results and evaluate examination findings; • Prepare and review patient case histories; • Prescribe and administer conservative measures of treatment, such as antibiotics, drugs, and compresses; • Determine procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, such as administering sedatives, prescribing diets, and preparing operative area of patient; • Coordinate surgical operation with anesthesiologist and other medical services; • Perform, oversee, or assist in performing procedures in areas such as cardiac, pulmonary, plastic, brain, and orthopedic surgery; • Treat patients suffering from surgical shock, postoperative hemorrhages, and other complications; • Schedule operations, assign personnel such as nurses and medical technicians, and provide direction on care of patients and operating room protocol; • Advise on kind and quantity of supplies and equipment; Instruct interns and residents on surgical procedures and techniques; • Treat diseases of, and injuries to, certain organs or systems using surgical procedures not requiring specialty skills; • Refer patients to other or additional specialists when the nature of the disease or injury presents such a necessity
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.

Osteopathic Medicine Board
Physician & Surgeon

Experience Requirement	Complete Internship Candidate must successfully complete an approved internship. The State Board will work cooperatively with the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) under standards established by the Committee on Post-Doctoral Training of the AOA to evaluate and approve internship programs prerequisite to unrestricted licensure in Pennsylvania.
Education Requirement	Doctorate Degree (D.O.) A candidate must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine and graduated from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	2 Examinations A candidate must receive passing scores on Parts I, II, and III of the COMLEX-USA examination with results received from the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners. A candidate must also receive a passing score on a practical Osteopathic Manipulative Therapy (OMT) examination in osteopathic diagnosis by one of the following methods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passing the COMLEX Level-2PE/Clinical Skills Examination administered by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners • Successfully completed an Osteopathic Board Certification examination that included a practical OMT component. • Successfully completed a practical OMT examination as a requirement for another state license • Passing the Pennsylvania OMT examination administered by Pearson VUE
Profession definition	Fully licensed physicians who practice in all areas of medicine. Emphasizing a whole-person approach to treatment and care, Osteopathic Physicians (DO) are trained to listen and partner with their patients to help them get healthy and stay well.

Navy
Thoracic and Cardiovascular Surgeon (264) [Commissioned Officer]

Job Duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Examine patients and determine additional examinations and clinical laboratory tests that may be required; • Interpret test results and evaluate examination findings; • Prepare and review patient case histories; • Prescribe and administer conservative measures of treatment, such as antibiotics, drugs, and compresses; • Determine procedures for preoperative and postoperative care, such as administering sedatives, prescribing diets, and preparing operative area of patient; • Coordinate surgical operation with anesthesiologist and other medical services; • Perform, oversee, or assist in performing procedures in areas such as cardiac, pulmonary, plastic, brain, and orthopedic surgery; • Treat patients suffering from surgical shock, postoperative hemorrhages, and other complications; • Schedule operations, assign personnel such as nurses and medical technicians, and provide direction on care of patients and operating room protocol; • Advise on kind and quantity of supplies and equipment; Instruct interns and residents on surgical procedures and techniques; • Treat diseases of, and injuries to, certain organs or systems using surgical procedures not requiring specialty skills; • Refer patients to other or additional specialists when the nature of the disease or injury presents such a necessity
Education/ Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved school of medicine or osteopathic medicine
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completion of a residency or fellowship. All military residency programs are approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) • Current license to practice medicine in the United States, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico • Ability to express ideas clearly and concisely; • Desire to help others; • Professionalism
Related Credentials Offered	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Primary Certification in Public Health/Community Medicine • Certification in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine

Licensure Requirement – Military Experience Equivalency Notes

Experience Requirement	A candidate for licensure must complete an approved internship. Servicemember completed a residency program approved by the ACGME. Satisfies experience requirement for licensure.
Education Requirement	In order to satisfy education requirement for licensure as an Osteopathic Physician & Surgeon, the servicemember must hold a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from an approved osteopathic medical college.
Examination Requirement	Servicemember is required to hold a license to practice medicine in the Navy, and thus, must have passed required licensure examinations. If the servicemember is licensed in another state, they could seek licensure in Pennsylvania by endorsement or Act 41.