Delaware County

Linda Jeannette Mapp, license no. BV004799L, of Lansdowne, Delaware County, was ordered to: pay a civil penalty of six thousand dollars; an assessment for the costs of investigation of one thousand five hundred and ninety dollars; attend and successfully complete at least fourteen hours of remedial education on the topics of Veterinary Medical Records and Veterinary Law and Ethics, because she violated the Board's recordkeeping regulations which require a licensee to provide documentary evidence of a patient's illness, hospital care, and treatment, and serve as a basis for review, study, and evaluation of the care and treatment rendered by the veterinarian; and further require that a veterinary medical record be kept in a problem-oriented or similar format that allows any veterinarian, by reading the record, to proceed with the care and treatment of the patient, and allow the Board or other agency to determine the advice and treatment recommended and performed. She also failed to maintain required veterinary medical records; engaged in incompetence, gross negligence or other malpractice, or departed from, or failed to conform to, the standards of acceptable and prevailing veterinary medical practice; and failed to provide records to the Board immediately upon request and/or inspection by a representative of the Board.
